

Rte 3 Box 165
Loris, S.C.

Reginald B. Todd E.M.³
U.S.S. Channing
Co. Fleet Post Office
New York, N.Y.

Tell, theres not so much to write 'cept
I love you

Hurry up and come home, Im just here waiting
Love you My

Darling
Love forever,
Your
Mrs

Handwritten signature and decorative flourishes

Handwritten notes on the left side of the page, including "He's got your book" and "now keep it as them" with various scribbles.

Sat. Am.
April, 24, '43

I Love You

Dearest one,
Tell, hows my man today.
Sure hope you're well, and stay. Im here, and its raining a slow drizzle. Wish, you were here then we could sleep up a breeze.
Couldn't we? I didn't do so much yesterday, so today Im lazy.

R. B. Eldred came by yesterday and blew his horn.
says hes glad we got married. He knew how I was treated at my other home.

Havent been anywhere
much. We went to Leilas (Nesti) and to your grandpa Jodds the afternoon you left. They asked me to

P.S. II

I'm wearing your Coats now. They fit me just good.

go back and see them, so if it stops raining I'm going today. Gool and Mrs. Russel are very nice to me. Think were going to get along just fine.

Remember, Darling, tomorrow is the 25th April. Remember it? You bet I do.

R. B. Alton James came here yesterday. Says he's tickled we're married.

Haven't seen Inez since I went to school Thursday.
Think they'll come before long.

Looked for some mail yesterday, but didn't get any. In meeting Mr.
Gool today to get my mail to come here.