Jesse and his wife Lizzie Ann Milligan Chestnut are both buried at Bethlehem Baptist Church , Shell, Horry County, South Carolina.

Jesse died from skin cancer, Lizzie died from old age.

Uncle Jimmy has Jesse birthday as January 15, 1858

Jesse was born and lived his life in Horry County, South Carolina. He had been a farmer in the Shell Community area, growing tobacco and raising hogs. Jesse had been a man of simple means, he worked hard, to provide for his family. Life was not an easy in the later 1800' s early 1900's in Horry County, South Carolina. Transportation was difficult to come by and the roads were very bad, what roads that there were. Folks in this area did not travel too often, and they received even less visitors. There were no factories to work in, money was very difficult to get. Most folks from Horry County were farmers. Jesse lived across from Uncle Ozzie and Aunt Pinkie's farm. Jesse's house apparently stood across the road from Uncle Ozzie's, the house burned sometime in the 1920's.

Vannie Chestnut, was in Savannah, Georgia ca 1917, visiting / living with his sister Bea Chestnut Bryant, his was in an accident that marked him for life. It was involving a wagon and a Sunoco truck, it was said the tongue of the wagon went through the truck, crushing both of Vannie's legs.... he was in the hospital for over a year in Savannah.... the Spanish flu was at its height. (he did not get sick).... the doctors wanted to amputate his legs... his daddy, Jesse would not hear of it.... Vannie always walk with a limp.... one leg was short than the other by several inches, he had two horrid scars across this upper thighs from this accident. Insurance money came to him, he went to mechanic school in Gastonia, North Carolina.... there he met Laila Pennington....

Vannie was the bus mechanic for Brunswick County schools in the early years (30's and 40's) he had the first garage in Shallotte, North Carolina. Years later he had a small party fishing boat at Shallotte Point.

Virginia Nancy (Hon) Sarvis, b: 22 Apr 1908 in Horry County, South Carolina d: 17 Aug 1972 in Lakeland, Polk, Florida

Virginia Nancy (Hon) was the 5th child of William Gary and Nancy Jane Sarvis. She was 9 years old when her Mother passed away and was raised by her father and older siblings. At the tender age of 16, she eloped to Dillon, SC, to Jesse Judson Bryant, born in 1905. Between 1925 and 1930, Virginia and Jesse, wanting a better life for their family, moved with their son Raymond, to Lakeland, Florida, where Jesse worked for the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. While her husband was at work, Virginia took care of their children, Raymond Keith, born in 1926, Juanita Nancy, born in 1931, Shirley Marie, born in 1938, and Sandra Sue, born in 45. She took in laundry and ironed for others, to make extra money for the family. She was an excellent cook and knew how to make the most of the little they had. She also was a fantastic seamstress, and the girls never wanted for beautiful clothes. Virginia was always a warm, cheerful, giving person, whom everyone loved and respected. Virginia was quite active in the Women's Missionary Society, Women's Club of Lakeland, Garden Gate Garden Circle and a member of the First Baptist Church of Lakeland. An avid gardener, she loved to spend hours with her flowers at her lakeside home. Virginia died in 1972, at the age of 64 and Jesse died eight years later in 1980. They are buried in the Lakeland Cemetery, Lakeland, Polk, Florida.

Conway Man Dies of Stabs; Wife Jailed

Special in the News
Conway - A 34-year-old Conway man was stabbed to death in the bedroom of his house here Saturday at 3:15p.m. His wife told the police she did it.

Albert B. Chestnut of 1309 Park Hill Dr, died almost instantly after being stabbed in the jagular vein with a steak knife, according to Coroner Littlejohn Blanton.

Mrs. Clara Mishoe Chestnut is being held in Horry County jail. She told police she that the stabbing occurred after her husband came into the house drunk and threatened to whip their 15-year-old son who had the mumps.

An arguement began, she told police, and her husband began beating her. She said she picked up the steak knife meaning only to scare him.

Chestnut walked from the bedroom to the living room, sat down in a chair and died within a few minutes, Blanton reported.

Chestnut is survived by two children. Grady, 15, in the room at time of the stabbing and Dale, six.

Pending the investigation was Conway Police Chief H. C. Barker. An inquest is scheduled for Thursday at 8 p.m.

From the "Dictionary of American Naval Fighting Ships," (1976) Vol. 6, pp.403-404.

SEA LEOPARD (SS483) was laid down by the Portsmouth (N.H.) Navy Yard on 7 November 1944; launched on 2 March 1945; sponsored by Hon. Margaret Chase Smith, United States Congresswoman from Maine; and commissioned on 11 June 1945, Comdr. R. E. M. Ward in command.

Following shakedown off the New England coast, SEA LEOPARD was ordered to the Pacific War Zone. However, hostilities with Japan ceased before the submarine's departure date; and she remained in the Atlantic. The submarine then proceeded to Key West, Fla., and she remained in Florida waters through 1946 providing services to the Antisubmarine Development Force.

In January 1947, she returned to Portsmouth, N.H., for her first shipyard overhaul. Next came training exercises in the Key West area until late 1948, when she entered the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard for a Guppy II modernization. Upon completion, she was assigned to Submarine Squadron (SubRon) 6 and homeported at Norfolk, Va. In November 1949, she joined other units in cold water exercises in the Atlantic. During February and March 1950, the submarine participated in maneuvers in the Caribbean.

From August through November, she joined the 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean, visiting ports of Italy, France, and Sicily, before returning home. From December 1950 to April 1951 SEA LEOPARD was undergoing overhaul at the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard.

For the next two years, she operated in the Atlantic and Caribbean, participating in fleet training exercises. In September and October 1952, SEA LEOPARD participated in NATO operation "Emigrant," and then cruised in Bermuda waters, until entering the Charleston Naval Shipyard in December for overhaul. Returning to duty in April 1953, the submarine operated in the vicinity of Newfoundland and Iceland in operation "Mariner," before returning to warmer waters in the Caribbean.

SEA LEOPARD's second deployment to the Mediterranean took place in May and June of 1954 and was followed by her participation in NATO exercise "New Broom II," in which she made successful simulated attacks on NATO convoys. The submarine entered the Portsmouth (N.H.) Naval Shipyard in October for a six-month overhaul. The yard work was followed by her participation in "LantPhibEx," as a member of forces opposing a simulated amphibious assault on the coast of North Carolina.

In February and March 1956, SEA LEOPARD, along with other units of SubRon 6, set sail for the Caribbean and operation "Springboard." She then returned to Norfolk for local operations until March of 1957, when she again joined the 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean. In June, she participated in festivities celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Netherlands Submarine Force at Rotterdam, before sailing to Charleston for an overhaul. Upon its completion in January 1958, SEA LEOPARD joined operation "Springboard" in the Caribbean and then returned to Norfolk for local operations. Joining Task Group Alfa, she participated in operations to develop antisubmarine warfare tactics and readiness, until undergoing restricted availability at Charleston Naval Shipyard (August to October 1959) to install a new high capacity battery.

During 1960, SEA LEOPARD operated in the Atlantic in training exercises and fleet operations until 23 October, when she entered Philadelphia Naval Shipyard for overhaul. Following completion in April 1961, she returned to Norfolk and operated locally until 19 August when she joined Task Force 69 in the Mediterranean to participate in NATO operation "Checkmate" and visit Rota, Spain; Malta and Naples, Italy. On 3 October, SEA LEOPARD sailed from the Mediterranean for northern Europe and NATO operation "Devil Spread."

Arriving back at Norfolk on 10 November, she again joined Task Group Alfa for antisubmarine warfare (ASW) training until February 1963. She then participated in operation "Springboard" in the Caribbean. In July, SEA LEOPARD rejoined Task Group Alfa, until entering Norfolk Naval Shipyard on 16 December for an overhaul. In October 1964, after refresher training out of New London, Conn., the submarine returned to Norfolk to resume normal duties as a unit of SubRon 6, providing ASW services to units of the 2d Fleet.

In March 1965, she joined Task Group Alfa, deploying to the Mediterranean and then returning to the Atlantic to participate in ASW exercises with that group until 24 November 1966. On 27 December, SEA LEOPARD entered Norfolk Naval Shipyard for overhaul. In July 1967, she conducted type training with submarines SABLEFISH (SS-303) and CUBERA (SS-347). The remainder of 1967 was spent in the Norfolk area.

In 1968, SEA LEOPARD participated in exercises "Aged Daddy V" and "Rugby Match," and joined the search for the ill-fated submarine SCORPION (SSN-589). From July through October, she operated with the 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean, and upon her return, she remained at Norfolk for the rest of the year.

On 2 June 1969, SEA LEOPARD deployed on a special operation to the North Atlantic, returning to Norfolk on 15 August to operate in that area until entering Philadelphia Naval Shipyard on 17 January 1970 for a six-month overhaul. In October, she participated in operation "Eyebolt," and then remained at Norfolk until getting underway early in January 1971 to participate in operation "Springboard" in January and February. From 18 May to 2 September, SEA LEOPARD was deployed to the Mediterranean. She transferred operation from Norfolk to Key West, FL 1 later that year. She went on a northern Europe cruise in 1972 and was decommissioned in Key West.

SEA LEOPARD was decommissioned and struck from the Navy list on 27 March 1973 and transferred to Brazil, where she was commissioned in that country's navy as S. BAHIA.

Juanita Nancy Bryant Davis, b: 7 Jan 1931 in Lakeland, Polk, FL

Juanita Nancy Bryant, is the 2nd child of Jesse J. and Virginia (Hon) Nancy Sarvis Bryant. Juanita was born in Lakeland, Florida and graduated from Lakeland High School in 1949. While growing up, she and her brother Raymond would go to the ballpark, with their wagon, where the Detroit Tigers had their spring training. They would go out behind the outfield fence, which was a cow pasture and pick up baseballs, which they would then sell, so they could go to the movies. She was taught to drive by her father in an old Model T Ford. She also learned to cook and sew at an early age and turned into an excellent cook and seamstress. She always dreamed of becoming a nurse, so while attending high school, she worked for a local Doctor. After graduating, she applied and was accepted to the Medical College of South Carolina and Roper Hospital in Charleston, South Carolina. Her parents, having little money to send her to school, Juanita received a partial scholarship, with the help of the Doctor she had worked for in Lakeland. Nursing School was a 2 year, year round program, with only 2 weeks off in the summer. To make extra money for school, during the summer, she and some other nursing students would ride the train up to Connecticut, to work picking Cotton. They lived in cabins with the barest necessities. The highlight of her trip up north was stopping in New York City, to see the Rockettes, at the New York City Music Hall. During nursing school, the students also had to work at Roper Hospital. Sometimes wanting to quit and go home, she stuck it out and graduated in 1952. During this time she met and fell in love with Robert A. Davis, a handsome man from a small Kansas town, who was stationed in Charleston, at the Naval Base. They would later marry in 1954 in Lakeland, Florida. They eventually moved to Lawrence, Kansas, so Bob could finish school at the University of Kansas. Nancy worked at Lawrence Memorial Hospital for 42 years, as a labor and delivery nurse. It is said that she helped deliver half of the population in Lawrence. She and Bob had 5 children, James Bryant, born in 1955, Melissa Ann, born in 1956, Nancy Elizabeth (Beth) Davis, born in 1957, Timothy Keith, born in 1959, and Jeffrey Jerome, born in 1961. She worked evenings, so she would always have time for her children. Nancy is very active in her church, the First Baptist Church of Lawrence. She is very well respected and loved by all who know her and she has many friends. After Bob died in 1991, Nancy continued working until her retirement on Halloween day of 1994. She's an avid gardener and animal lover. She continues to live in Lawrence, Kansas, taking care of her dog, Bear and 3 cats, Sarah, Thomas, and Braxton.
