WHO WAS ALEXANDER CHESNUTT OF ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY, VIRGINIA?

....Alexander Chesnutt first appears in Isle of Wight County, Virginia land records in 1685 when he purchased 50 acres on Two Run Creek from James Garner. He died, intestate, in 1690 leaving a widow and one son, John. His widow married Mr. John Parnell. Alexander is referenced as a "Planter on the other side of the county" in 1685. The inventory from his estate indicates that he was also a weaver, a profession that some of his descendants also followed.

....John Chesnutt is the only child that can be attributed to Alexander Chesnutt. He had at least seven sons, Alexander, Joshua, John, Edward, Charles, Jacob, and David, and one daughter, Louisa Maytelda. John Chesnutt resided on property left to him by his father and 100 acres purchased by him in 1730. He died, intestate, in 1750 in Isle of Wight County, Virginia. Shortly after his death, his family dispersed.

....In the 1750s, five of Alexander's grandsons, Alexander, Joshua, Charles, Jacob and David, and one granddaughter, Louisa Maytelda, moved to present-day Sampson County, North Carolina and settled along the west side of the Six Runs. Alexander, Joshua and Charles left many descendants, some of whom are still living in southeastern North Carolina. Others migrated to South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Texas, Indiana, and eventually to the West.

The name of Royal/ Royals is pronounced RAWLS, the name is spelled in many forms:

Royal; Ryal; Rial; Ryall; Rawl

it is not proven that this is the Thomas that was married to Lydia Chesnutt, John Ryal did have a son named Thomas, ??? are they the same Thomas???? No other Thomas Royal/ Ryall is found in Duplin or Sampson County at this time.

In 1790 Thomas and Lydia Chesnutt Royal were neighbors to Biggers Mobley in Duplin County , North Carolina. ??? Was Thomas also a British Loyalist???? is this why he and his family migrated to Horry County, South Carolina ?????

Thomas is living next door to Isam Royal in 1790 after death of marriage of wife, all property to be equally divided between my 10 children- Peggy, Mitchell, William, Anney Jane, James Kilbee, Daniel , Henry, Polly and Asha. Wife to give each child a portion when they marry or as she thinks proper

Exec.: Anny Chesnutt, William Chesnutt

sign David Chesnutt

Wit.: Edward C. Gavin, David Chesnutt

After David Chesnutt died his property was divided evenly among his children in 1842. He had 880 acres, each receiving 88 acres. David had a plantation on the Six Runs Creek and Stewart Creek in Sampson County, North Carolina

David Chesnut (1730-1779), son of John Chesnut and his first wife, Betsy Driver, was born about 1730 in Isle of Wight Co., Virginia. That was also the place of birth for the Alexander, Joshua, Charles and Jacob Chesnut who were David's close associates in Duplin (now Sampson) Co., North Carolina, and apparently his brothers.

David's date of birth has been estimated on the basis of his having purchased 200 acres in present-day Sampson Co., North Carolina., on the west side of the Six Runs and up a beaverdam swamp in January 1757 (source: Sampson/Duplin Co., North Carolina., Deed Book 2:371, Alexander Chesnut to David Chesnutt). The land was part of the 540 acres patented by Alexander Chesnutt on 30 March 1756.

Witnesses to the deed were Charles Chesnut, Jacob Chesnutt and William Cason (Caison).

Later in 1757, David witnessed a deed when Alexander and his wife Sarah Murphey sold 225 acres of said 540 acres to William Cason (source: Sampson/Duplin Co., North Carolina., Deed Book 2:385, Alexander Chesnut and Sarah, his wife, to William Cason (Caison)).

In Nov 1761, David and Alexander Chesnut were among the buyers at the estate sale of Edward Homes (Holmes) (source: Sampson/Duplin Co., North Carolina, Deed Book 3:160, estate sale of Edward Homes (Holmes)).

On 19 Jan 1764, David Chesnut and William Cason were chain carriers for a survey of land patented by Joshua Chesnut on the west side of the Six Runs adjacent to Alexander Chesnut (source: Grant No. 42 to Joshua Chesnut: Duplin Co., North Carolina, Land Grant Book 18:34).

"Daniel Chesnutt married Louisa Jane Rackley in 1871. He had served in the Civil War (Corp. Co. 'B' 51 B.C. Infantry) and was past the age of fifty but fathered and reared four children. 1- David John, born 1873, married Mary Bonum. 2-Mary Louanna, born April 16, 1874, married her cousin Johnny Howard. 3-Henry J., born 1876 wife not known. 4-Stewart, born 1878, married Sadie Quinn. Daniel was willed 88 acres from his fathers estate and later purchased the same number of acres from a brother, and also a sister. These deeds are registered in the Sampson County Courthouse at Clinton." "Voices From the Past" by Joseph H Chesnutt

August 13 1843

Dear Cousin,(to Driver Boon)

I again take my pen in hand to inform you that we are all well at this hoping these few lines may find you all the same.

from my mothers and moved to it in April last. Planed corn th 3rd week of May and hired a Negro to make turpentine for me and I make the barrels myself and tend my corn and potatoes. I have had a bad chance to do anything I live by myself and when I ought to rote you I had to cook. A graite many excuses I could make but it not worth while. I do not want you to neglect writing to me as soon as you can. Aunt Peggy Boon, mother, and Nanny Chestnutt wishes to be remembered to your mother. Tell her they are very peart and can laugh and talk but looks might old.

Robert D. Chesnutt wishes to be remembered. He is well and family thoug the measles is in the neighborhood. Crops is tolerable good here considering the wet weather. We have had a very wet summer here. Corn is sell for 60 cents per bushel bacon $8 per C. I saw your Uncle Sampson Boon last February. Cort and me and he was talking bout you all. He lives Cumberland Count Fayetteville. He said he come there with Uncle Samuel Boon he had a legicy here. Old Mr. Bradley had left his wife he did not stay no time here. I did not see him but your Uncle Sampson said he had began to look old Brother William Chesnutt is married to Miss Charlott Robinson.

You wanted my opinion about slaves as to say whether or not it be right. I cannot tell tho I think I can tell? How they come I believe that Noah put the curs on Cannan his grandson for his father Hams transaction and whether it has ever been apealed or not I do not know.

Read Chapter 9 of Genesis beginning at the 22 verse and St. Pauls instruction to servants to obey their masters. Their conduct in this country seems like they have better all have master for free negros lives very shabby. Dear Cousin if I had you here I talk a heap about as to say I can't positively.

We have abolitionists here but when they express themselves thay git badly abused. I must end my letter by ascribing myself yur affectionate friend until death.

Driver Boone (1796 - 1881)

Obituary from the New Castle Courier - 1881

A Spiceland Pioneer Passes Away

click to enlarge Born in North Carolina on September 5, 1796, the son of John and Dorcas Chestnut Boone, Driver Boone died at his residence in Spiceland on Saturday night, August 20, 1881 at about 9 o'clock. On Monday night previous he was stricken with paralysis, and from that time he never swallowed any food, or returned to consciousness. Just 57 years to a day from the time he died, he started from his native State, North Carolina, to seek a home in a country where his fellow-beings were not sold and held for servitude. He first stopped in Wayne County, Ind., but in 1839 he came to the place where Spiceland now stands, and where he lived the balance of his life. During the years of back-woods life here he took an active part in reducing the forests into grain producing farms, and to assist to erect buildings for the worship of Almighty God, and in which to educate the children of these pioneers.

Driver Boone was a shoemaker by trade. Being an enterprising man he purchased a good stock of goods, and thus became the first merchant and mercantile man of Spiceland. He also acted as its first postmaster. He had lived more than man's allotted time, being almost eighty-five years old. He was a man universally esteemed, and one who had few, if any enemies. He was a life-long member of the Society of Friends, and died in the full realization of the promises of the Gospel.

He leaves a widow, Elizabeth, who was his second wife, three children by his first marriage to Anna Kesey, who died soon after coming to Indiana, and three by his last, living; all who are prominent and well known men and woman, as follows: Samson Boone and Rachel Allen, of Richmond, Ind., Mrs. B. B. Cheshire, Crown Point; Professor R. G. Boone, of Frankfort schools; Mrs. Dr. Gause, of Greensfork, Ind., and J. C. Boone, of New Castle, Ind..

His remains were laid to rest at 10 o'clock on Monday morning, in the old cemetery at Spiceland. These noble pioneers are passing away, and we are this day reaping the benefits of the great work they have done toward civilizing our land. We can never realize the great good done for humanity by the trials, privations and great work of these hardy fathers who are now but comparatively few in number

Dear Cousin,(to Driver Boon)

I again take my pen in hand to inform you that we are all well at this hoping these few lines may find you all the same.

I must confess to you my faults for not writing to you sooner. I had bought a piece of land about 14 miles from my mothers and moved to it in April last. Planed corn th 3rd week of May and hired a Negro to make turpentine for me and I make the barrels myself and tend my corn and potatoes. I have had a bad chance to do anything I live by myself and when I ought to rote you I had to cook. A graite many excuses I could make but it not worth while. I do not want you to neglect writing to me as soon as you can. Aunt Peggy Boon, mother,and Nanny Chestnutt wishes to be remembered to your mother. Tell her they are very peart and can laugh and talk but looks might old.

Robert D. Chesnutt wishes to be remembered. He is well and family thoug the measles is in the neighborhood. Crops is tolerable good here considering the wet weather. We have had a very wet summer here. Corn is sell for 60 cents per bushel bacon $8 per C. I saw your Uncle Sampson Boon last February. Cort and me and he was talking bout you all. He lives Cumberland Count Fayetteville. He said he come there with Uncle Samuel Boon he had a legicy here. Old Mr. Bradley had left his wife he did not stay no time here. I did not see him but your Uncle Sampson said he had began to look old Brother William Chesnutt is married to Miss Charlott Robinson.

You wanted my opinion about slaves as to say whether or not it be right. I cannot tell tho I think I can tell? How they come I believe that Noah put the curs on Cannan his grandson for his father Hams transaction and whether it has ever been appealed or not I do not know.

Read Chapter 9 of Genesis beginning at the 22 verse and St. Pauls instruction to servants to obey their masters. Their conduct in this country seems like they have better all have master for free negros lives very shabby. Dear Cousin if I had you here I talk a heap about as to say I can't positively.

We have abolitionists here but when they express themselves thay git badly abused. I must end my letter by ascribing myself yur affectionate friend until death.

Alfred Chesnutt

The Christian Worker, Tenth Month, 13, 1881

Eighth month 20, 1881, at Spiceland, Indiana, Driver Boone, aged 84 years, 11 months and 18 days.

He lived an honest, upright life, and was esteemed by all who knew him. Exactly fifty-seven years before the day of his decease he left North Carolina to seek a home in a land free from the blighting influences of slavery. In 1830 he came to the place where Spiceland now stands, and resided here the remainder of his life. He was the first person appointed postmaster at this place.

In many ways he has aided in the development of the country, the advancement of education, and the work of the church, and has been gathered to his rest at a ripe old age.

It is a singular coincidence that there are now living in Spiceland and near vicinity five persons who started with him from North Carolina fifty-seven years ago.

The Hagerstown (IN) Exponent, Wednesday, August 31, 1881

The death of Driver Boon of Spiceland, which occurred on Sunday, removes another of the pioneers of eastern Indiana. Mr. Boone had been a citizen of Spiceland for a half century. He was the first postmaster of the infant village and had been a man of great usefulness, though leading a quiet unobtrusive life. He was a member of Society of Friends and 85 years old. [New Castle Mercury].

Jonathan C. Boone was born in Spiceland, Henry Co., Ind., Aug. 14, 1852, a son of Driver and Elizabeth C. Boone. His father was a native of North Carolina, and came to Indiana in 1830, settling in Spiceland, where he resided till his death in 1880, aged eighty-five years. He opened one of the first stores in the place and was appointed the first Postmaster. He was married in North Carolina to Anna Kesey, who died soon after coming to Indiana. He afterward married Elizabeth, widow of Richard Ganze, and to them were born five children - Richard G., now Superintendent of the Franklin, Clinton County, schools; Christina B., widow of Dr. Thomas Ganze; John W. and Anna J., died in childhood; and Jonathan C., who was reared and educated in Spiceland. When sixteen years of age he began clerking for Samuel Parch. He afterward clerked for Halloway & Stanly four years, and for O. H. Nixon, druggist. In 1879 he entered the office of T. B. Reeder, Recorder, and remained with him two months when he was employed by Milton Brown to complete a set of abstract-books. In 1882 he was elected County Recorder, his duties to begin Nov. 4, 1884. Mr. Boone was married in August, 1878, to Mary A. Dennis, of Wayne County, Ind. He is a member of Crescens Lodge, No. 33, Knights of Pythias.
